

Dear Parishioners,

A big thanks to Sara Booth and all those who helped her with the yard sale extravaganza. The day turned out beautiful weather-wise and lots of people went home with treasures. Thank you, thank you. We made about $1,300 from the sale. What was not sold was donated to St. Vincent de Paul.

This week we are again considering our response to God for all the gifts that God has given us. Certainly one way to respond to God is to serve God's people. We are having a ministry fair this weekend after all the Masses. There are tables and people in the Fellowship Hall and we encourage and invite all parishioners to become active in one of the ministries of the parish.

Thanks to Michelle Moore who shared her life and experience with us last weekend. The power of example is what can make a stewardship way of life so attractive. If many people I know are into square-dancing and seem to enjoy it, then I too am tempted to try it. If people I know and admire are into stewardship and they seemed joy-filled and peace-filled, I'm tempted to try it. So as the commercial used to say: "Try it. You'll like it."

Next weekend is somewhat unique in the calendar of the Church. On Saturday we will celebrate the Feast of All Saints. This would usually be a holy day of obligation, but since it falls on a Saturday the obligation falls out. We will celebrate the feast on Saturday morning at the 8:00a.m. Mass.

For the Sunday Masses we celebrate the Feast of All Souls. This is the appointed time of the year when we especially remember all the deceased of our families, friends, and parishioners. We especially remember those who have died recently. We will try to honor our beloved deceased in a special way at the weekend liturgies.

Lord, make us good stewards of your many gifts.

In Christ, the Redeemer,
Fr. Harry Grile, C.Ss.R.
Pastor

P.S. Be sure to take a hard look at the advertising being done in favor of Initiative-1000. Why are out-state groups so intent on seeing this initiative passed in Washington State?

The greatest prayer we can offer for our deceased loved ones is having a Mass celebrated for them, and all the Poor Souls. Is there someone in your life who has been called to receive their Eternal Reward and whom you would like to remember in a Mass celebrated for them? The front office at the rectory will help you.

Fr. Lyle, Church Prefect

Stewardship A Way Of Life

Our culture frequently encourages us to focus on ourselves and our pleasures. At times, we can find it too easy to ignore spiritual realities and to deny religion a role in shaping human and social values.

WHO ARE THE REDEMPTORIST SAINTS?

Come and fellowship with other parishioners and learn more about these saints. On Friday, November 7th video clips will be shown at 1pm and 6pm lunch/dinner will be provided) in the Fellowship Hall.

Fall is in the air! Before you know it Christmas catalogues will be in your mail box. Most probably along with those catalogues will be calendars for '09. I don't need the catalogues, BUT I sure can use the '09 calendars for the men in Monroe. They are most grateful for them. Just leave the calendars in the sacristy or drop them at the front office in the rectory. Thanks!
Fr. Lyle

Spend private time with The Lord.

*Nov. 7th—12:40-8:00pm, in the Adoration Chapel
Sign up on the clipboard in the vestibule.*

Next Sunday, November 2nd, is ALL SOULS' DAY. However, we do not remember them for just one day, but every day. Also, a Mass will be celebrated each week for the Souls whom you wish to remember. Envelopes to assist you are in the vestibule of the church. You may place them in the regular Sunday Offering basket. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord for their works follow them."

THANK YOU!

The Sacred Heart Yard Sale Extravaganza was a huge success. In just under six hours we raised almost $1,300!!!! Thanks again to everyone in the parish who donated items and bought them. So you know, unsold items were then donated to St. Vincent DePaul. However, I am happy to say we sold almost half of everything. I especially want to thank the members of the Bible Study Group who planned and sponsored the sale. You all did just great. Thanks for your hard work, your commitment, and your enthusiasm. It was a great service and witness.
